PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The first point I must raise at the beginning of this report is to make special mention of the outgoing President, Mark Rendell. After 13 years of involvement with the Board, Mark decided to stand down. The benefits Mark has brought to the Association over the years are too numerous to list here but every member must be aware of his outstanding contributions. It was with trepidation and awe I took the role of President.

The 1991 season can without argument be regarded as an outstanding success for umpiring in Sydney. The aim at the start of the year was to increase numbers by 30%. Whilst some people may have considered this ambitious, the actual increase was 41%.

Much of the credit for the success of the season must go to the NSW Director of Umpiring, David Levens. I am sure that in the three years David has been with us in Sydney, he has seen the light at the end of the tunnel grow to such an extent that now it is positively glowing. His work has enabled the professionalism and performances of the group to improve to such an extent that in a lot of cases it far exceeds that of the football.

Of course no such large organisation can be a one man band and the support of Max Henry, Maureen Cummings, Glenn Peters, Geoff Dempsey and Terry Godfrey was essential for the development of each umpire.

A special thank you to the fellow members of the Board, in particular David Yole, for the support I received during the year. David's enthusiasm is infectious and has brought about a solid platform for your Association to develop in the nineties.

Again the Association was blessed with a good relationship with the League and in particular the prompt payment of match payments would make umpires in other States envious. The support umpires received from the Tribunal was again most appreciated.

Congratulations to all umpires who achieved their goals during the year, from Grand Final appointments, A.F.L. and representative games and to everyone who contributed in the progress of the Association.

Finally, special mention must be made of two members who will not be with us in 1992. John Reid and Martin Jackson have returned to Hobart and Melbourne respectively. John became Life Member in 1989 and Martin in 1991 which indicates the type of contributions they have made to the Association. With a total of 15 First Grade Grand Finals between them, the experience will be sorely missed. Furthermore Martin's five years as Treasurer has placed the Association on solid ground. The numerous umpires who have benefited from John and Martin's experience can be eternally grateful.

In closing, the momentum of 1991 must continue for Sydney Football to develop. It is up to each and everyone of us to ensure such development.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The 1991 season was a most productive one for umpires.

Two of our number in the field umpired Fosters Cup games at the highest level - AFL Firsts. Sincere congratulations to Frank Kalayzich and Martin Jackson. Congratulations must also be extended to our representative umpires Paul Hoare, Bill Speecha, Steve Kuhn, Brinley Sheppard, Grant Godfrey and Nick Angelos. Martin Jackson reached "Rendellesque" heights when he was selected to umpire the interstate clash between NSW and Queensland. Others to serve the Association with distinction at AFL level were Tom Evans, Danny Daniel, Ken Ray, Steve Kuhn, Steve Power, John Reid, Peter Hampshire, Nick Angelos and Roger Crowhurst.

I was privileged to represent NSW umpires in an umpiring exchange with Brisbane one weekend. Not only was this a most enjoyable time but the learning experience from the Queensland set up has and will continue to help the Association in NSW.

I would like to complement the Board and in particular Peter Hampshire for his great leadership skills. Peter had a difficult task in filling the "emperor like" shoes of Mark Rendell and his contribution helped build on previous solid ground and the Association has the potential to become even stronger.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our sponsors - MARIOS RISTORANTE, CAMPERDOWN TRAVELODGE, REGENT HOTEL OF SYDNEY, STEFAN FOR HAIR, UNLIMITED FITNESS ST. LEONARDS, TELECOM and EIE AUSTRALIA (Proprietors of the Sydney Showboat). A big thank you to Richard Cox for his donations of NRMA goodies.

Last, but not the least, I would like to thank the coaching staff under the leadership of NSW Director of Umpiring David Levens, our Sydney Umpires Coach Max Henry and our Fitness Co-ordinator Maureen Cummings.

Their efforts throughout the season were untiring. Everyone has gained benefits from their quite, thorough approach to their jobs.

I would like to pay homage to our friends the Observers, Geoff Dempsey, Terry Godfrey and Glenn Peters. Your feedback is really appreciated by all. However the look on the recipients faces, it is really a disguised "thank you" sometimes.

A special thank you to all the football widows (read widowers for the female umpires). Each umpire really appreciated your effort.

In 1991 we welcomed many people to our ranks. People like Brett Greene, Kevin Meade and Greg Bullock achieved First Grade status and many others made great accomplishments in their first year. The challenge ahead for us all is to maintain the high level of friendliness and professionalism in our ranks. Newcomers must be made to feel welcome (even if it is Harvey having a small chat with them). Friends made in umpiring are often friends for life.

Finally, I must document the award winners for the year.

UMPIRES REPRESENTATIVE REPORT

Without a doubt, 1991 has been a year of great achievement and consolidation for your Association.

Umpire ranks grew. Several new members in all three disciplines added not only to our numbers but to the depth and quality of our on field performances.

Of course, such improvement does not come without hard work and dedication. As it is often said "You only get out what you put in!" While this was positive on the track and the field, the attention that is paid by members to the welfare of the Association was not equal.

Earlier this year an Umpires Camp was held. I had the opportunity to speak on the function, role and operation of your Association. One aspect that was highlighted was the need for participation and input from members. While the Board of Directors is charged with the administration of the Association, in order to perform efficiently and make policy that is consistent with the wishes of the membership, members must be active and positive in making their views known in the appropriate forum - the Association's monthly meetings.

At this forum, matters of importance and concern can be raised, debated and resolved for the benefit of all members. It is your opportunity to direct the welfare of your Association. I would like to see every member make for 1992 a commitment to be part of the system, by functioning as an active Association member. To quote a past President, "Are you an active member or do you just belong?"

I take this opportunity to congratulate all umpires who achieved their goals for 1991. For those who did not, now is the time to focus on these all important aims for 1992. If one is to achieve, one must set goals to strive for. By combining our hopes and goals the Association can be confident of meeting its corporate objectives for 1992.

Good luck and here's to a successful season.

Roger Crowhurst

END OF SEASON REPORT

On Friday the fourth of October 1991, nine members of the umpiring fraternity boarded an Ansett Airlines flight to Adelaide for the annual end of season trip. An oversight by our booking clerk, Brinley Sheppard saw our flight going via Canberra and a very dry thirty minutes was spent on the tarmac there.

Arrived Adelaide, straight to our motel for a quick spa, shower and change and off to town for dinner. That was all of us minus one, Thatch Top had made arrangements to meet with an old acquaintance. The rest of us decided upon Sorrento's Italian Restaurant down on Hindley Street. Low and behold, to our surprise there was Thatch Top with lady friend also dining at Sorrento's.

After an enjoyable meal, with fine wine and numerous beers it was off to the casino for what was to become the first of many hours in the old station. A mixed result was had on this first night, with various levels of stamina being displayed.

A new day dawned and one of the highlights of any trip, a day at the races. After a hearty breakfast at the motel and a careful study of the form guides it was into the city for a couple of heart starters. It was then down to board the Glenelg tram for what was to be the site seeing for the trip. (I am still not sure if the trams are a serious form of public transport or just something for the tourists.) With the tram packed to overflowing it was an express to Morphettville.

During these transfers we had lost the Legend who had been entrusted to obtain a supply of bitter lemons for the race day drink - vodka and bitter lemon. The Legend arrived before the first race. Junior was sent to place the first bet... a bet that should have cost $6.00 ended up costing $42.00. A bit more coaching was needed from Thatch Top. An enjoyable day was had by all with a couple of people having a win but most going down.

I do not think anyone saw the history making sixth race where the first horse across the line was given second place and the second horse across the line was given first place - a strange system down there !

It was back to the motel for a shower and change then off to dinner. Tonight Chinese, and after a superb banquet, Thatch Top was itching and off to the casino again. The die-hards stuck to the tables while the others headed off to various nightclubs in search of "chicky-babes".

During the day Bush Pig had been entrusted with the arduous duty of fine manager with mixed results, with Harvey being Harvey copping huge fines. The early hours of Sunday morning saw Harvey not talking for half an hour, a sight you had to see to believe.

Sunday saw the push beginning and after breakfast it was to the casino to pool funds and hit the tables with the Thatch Top school of gambling. During the course of the day we saw the group come and go with Thatch Top having a fourteen hour stint at the tables with a good degree of success.

The evening meal was at the Pizza Hut. Harvey showing his culinary skills at their best - the young waitress is still receiving therapy !

The trip entering its dying hours the Monday morning saw us heading to an inner city hotel for a counter meal and a sky race day. With the fine money in tow Thatch Top was given the task to select some winners, a task he completed with flying colours.

The late afternoon saw the dash to the airport with all having enjoyed a most relaxed and memorable weekend.

FITNESS COACH REPORT

The umpires fitness programme from January through to September was based on slow and fast interval running as well as slow to fast distance runs. Interval training is running set distances with limited periods of rest between each effort.

Due to various standards of fitness levels amongst the umpires, they were broken up into 3-4 groups per night. Numbers in 1991 increased substantially from the number attending training in 1990.

Sponsorship was arranged for the three best performers at training each week. I would like to thank John Reid and Roger Crowhurst for their efforts in organising weekly awards and the people who donated prizes.

The final training award points for the top five umpires are as follows:

Field	Boundary
F. Kalayzich	P. Hampshire
R. Crowhurst	S. Power
M. Jackson	S. Kuhn
B. Sheppard	H. Harrop
M. Rendell	K. Angelo

Training grounds used were Beauchamp, Rushcutters Bay Park and the Sydney Athletic Field. Training points were watched with eager eyes as the sheet was posted each week and created a great deal of enthusiasm. Again, I would like to thank John Reid for his assistance in this area.

Personally I have enjoyed coaching the umpires and have a lot of respect for them all. The training/umpires work-load is immense and not for the light hearted people. I feel those who have attended training on a regular basis have improved their fitness levels and reduced the incidence on injury because of this. Those umpires who do not train regularly need to think seriously whether or not they should commit themselves to umpiring in the future as it is demanding on the body both physically and mentally and requires a great deal from a person to give their best.

Finally, special thanks to the following people for their assistance during the year:

John Reid
Peter Hampshire
Max Henry
David Levens
Roger Crowhurst
