PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It was important that the 1992 football year carry on the development of umpiring in Sydney that had gained good momentum in 1991.

Without doubt the season can be regarded as being successful with numbers again increasing which resulted in appointments increasing and more importantly competition for umpiring spots in each grade hotting up. Overall this meant that the standard of umpiring improved to a point that in the majority of cases umpiring can be regarded as better than football.

Again the credit for the success of the season in the first instance with David Levens, who worked tirelessly to ensure the continued advancement of umpiring. David's first lieutenant Max Henry continued in his role of Sydney Umpiring Coach to mature the skills of each umpire in the three disciplines and was ably assisted by Terry Godfrey and Tom Evans.

New Fitness Coach, David Stuckey had the unenviable task of following on from Maureen Cummings (Australian Womens Triathlete) and did a wonderful job. David has agreed to continue in the position for 1993 which gives continuity in the role for the first in a number of years and is a great benefit for the Association.

The Association was fortunate to obtain sponsorship monies from the Carlton and United Breweries, which in these tough economic times, greatly assisted in total umpire development. It is most important that all umpires give support to CUB by wearing the company's logo on their equipment to give suitable exposure earned by their generous assistance. Buffalo Sports assisted all umpires by their keenness to provide all umpires with their uniforms, jackets and shirts, and this is gratefully acknowledged.

I would like to thank all members of the 1992 Board of Directors for their support given during the season; especially to David Yole as Secretary and to Mark Rendell. David will be unable to continue as Secretary in 1993 due to his new position as Sydney Junior Umpires Development Co-ordinator. David will be sadly missed as his contribution over the last few years has been essential to the advancement of the Association. Mark regained a position on the Board after having a year off to add 13 years valuable experience to the management of football umpiring in NSW.

During the season a number of social events were held which highlighted the continued spirit within the ranks. The best attended were the Grand Final Night and the President's Evening where in excess of ninety people attended both functions. The Board decided to place special emphasis on the Grand Final Night this year as it was considered that this presentation function should be the pinnacle of the season; where umpires obtain their reward for a year of hard work. The support given by Members to this function clearly evidenced the support for the decision.

In closing, congratulations to all umpires who achieved their personal goals during the hard year and look forward to 1993 as further development in umpiring in Sydney.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Season 1992 was a big one for the NSW Umpires. It was a significant year in that Roger Crowhurst became the first Sydney Umpire to officiate in the field for AFL Seniors (even if it was from the bench). Gerald Walsh joined us from Melbourne and he umpired many Seconds games in Sydney. Paul Hoare also moved through the ranks and umpired at Second grade level. Tom Evans completed his 500th. game with his usual professionalism, before he retired to become Goal Umpires Coach. Another milestone was that of Richard Cox and John Prentice who achieved the 300 game mark. This was a fantastic effort. It was pleasing to note that Richard and Criag Sewell umpired the Navy versus SFA game at the SCG. A memorable day for both especially for Craig being a Navy man. Mark Eadson, Tom Hassall, Ray Pearce and Tim Shearer joined us for 1992. All were pleasing additions and "fitted" in extremely well. Mark helped keep Walshy and Meadey under control throughout the year.

Father Rendell continued to impress with his resilience throughout his long career. Unfortunately, he was injured at training during the finals and he was unable to add another Grand Final to his long list of achievements. Frank Nevill continued to umpire well through the year and it is fantastic to witness his positive influence on all, but especially the younger umpires. Damian James debuted as Field Umpire in First Grade.

A highlight of the season was the appointment of Australia's first all female umpire team in a senior game at Trumper Park. All the girls thoroughly deserved their appointment and conducted themselves in a truly professional manner. Congratulations from all umpires.

Peter Hampshire, Tony Brown, David Ponsford and Steve Kuhn all did VSFL games in 1992. A fine achievement for all, especially Peter considering his age. The improvement of Paul Hoare and Mike Heindricks was a most pleasing feature for the "stickmen".

During the year Danny Daniel departed the Sydney scene for Canberra. He gave many years valuable service to the Association and his presence will be sorely missed, not to mention his penchant for Crown & Anchor.

Grant Godfrey went on an umpire exchange to Brisbane and performed extremely well on and off the field.

I would like to thank the Board of Management for their untiring work, especially Grant Godfrey and Nick Angelos. I would also like to thank our generous sponsors, Carlton and United Breweries and Buffalo Sports for their terrific support. I trust all umpires will continue to support them; especially by the display of their promotional material.

Finally, I must document the award winners for the year.

END OF SEASON TRIP REPORT.

On Friday, 2nd. October, Dick French, Australia's leading cricket umpire coach and past speaker at President's Evening, accompanied Sydney's leading football umpires to Hobart. Despite the shoe-like oxygen mask demonstration by Junior, no in-flight problems developed. The welcoming party, Mr. John Reid, Hobart's leading ex-Bookmaker and family (ex-Waterhouse) officially passed the key to the Wretpoint Casino to Blocker. The dwarves were put in TT's boot, Mrs. Reid collected Junior, Smithy, Thumper, Blocker and Tripod and Miss C., feeling safe, drove Rabbi, T.O., Sump Guts and ATM to the hotel. Mum won the Hobart Indy road race.

At the casino, Legend won $360.00 on the first bet, Smithy lost everything except $20.00, T.O. and ATM booked in for 6 hours at blackjack while Pygmy, Rabbi, Blocker, Thumper and Sump Guts decided to entertain the North Hobart F.C. and Tripod booked in for blood tests. Despite several ejections and many lost refreshments, Pygmy decided to assist the local police with a statement about a car crash through his hotel door. The police failed to return his multicoloured sock, which he thought he ate.

Despite early morning refreshments, the team still went to the local races. Pygmy, with a poor sense of daylight savings, gave Hobart a demonstration of rural contour irrigation as he walked down the Tasman Highway. When Smithy gained a child's concession to the races, Rabbi was jealous and ATM confused. TT (Norman Gunston) and the team were assembled under John Reid's umbrella for the days competition. The bookmaker decided to give all umpires one point over the displayed odds. Reid's Race Ratings fell into a hole when the umpires collected over $1000.00 in three races.

The evenings entertainment was a TT affair; Totally Traumatic. Anything and everything regarding TT and Sydney football was blasphemed, coloured, contorted and GSTed. Pygmy, Legend, Blocker and Rabbi were away with the fairies while Sump Guts' sleep was interrupted by the local football team defrosting the fridge. At the end of the night room 136 ordered steamed fish, grilled vegetables, two tuna milkshakes, a bottle of ginger root extract and a bloody mary with egg floater for breakfast.

The pre BBQ early morning meeting was held in Thumpers room with ATM refreshments. Not knowing the bookmakers address, Junior rang our President in Sydney to discover where the event was to be held. When it was thought that Sunday in Tasmania might be "dry", Legend rang for room service and obtained two cases of Cascade Premium for only $140.00. Driving to West Moonah, the visitors passed several Sunday trading hotels.

Sump Guts conducted the "toilet roll to nominated window" contest while Junior collected the $2.00 entry fee and raised over $200.00 and the Pygmy ate another sock. Rabbi lost his pants, ATM suffered a localised rain storm, Blocker was in disgrace, Smithy collected recyclable aluminium cans, Thumper was aghast, TO chatted to the rels. and Tripod booked in for another blood test. Back at the hotel, the big betters made significant dents in the house bank, especially TO, ATM, Rabbi and Smithy.

The last day in Hobart was quite normal; the refreshment stations were open. Blocker argued with an escaped convict, Junior resuscitated a CPA victim, Legend watched Sky, TT S.P.ed the snooker competition, TO refereed the games and Rabbi stood to win over $500.00 but was black balled by the referee. No one backed the young stud and Smithy won against some very stiff competition. Congratulations. The Publican shouted the group two cases of beer and several bottles of port. The last race trifecta, costing $120.00, lost. The syndicate shouted Smithy champagne and rubbers on the return flight to Sydney, but Brian was not impressed. Sorry.

P.S. Pygmy's socks were returned by Australian Post.

P.P.S. TT is labouring on the east coast of Tasmania.
