PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The Mission Statement developed by your Board in 1994 was "to promote an environment which encourages umpire excellence, promotion opportunities, social harmony and fellowship".

To these ends, the season was a resounding success.

Membership remained 78 umpires, while 106 individual umpires officiated in 1509 games. Despite the loss of several established first grade umpires from the 1993 panel through transfer or retirement, this was matched by the promotion, recruitment and appointment of 21 debutants as first class professionals. Thirteen members represented your Association with distinction in 7 major intra- and interstate fixtures. There were major advances in the AFL and VSFL competitions.

Throughout the year, 14 social events were organised and were well attended. These activities are wide ranging and attempt to appeal to all members and their families/friends.

The monthly newsletter continues to be a major source of interest and speculation. This year there were 16 writers providing articles for publication. Monthly meetings continue to be very well attended.

Unfortunately some members needed reminders about our agreed dress code and the importance of punctuality. Nonetheless, the greater majority of our Association members continue to provide the highest forms of professionalism; both on and off the field.

Umpire observation and performance appraisal is of continuing concern, however, it is expected that in 1995 greater manpower in these areas will accelerate umpire skills and performance.

Congratulations to the NSW AFL for a spectacularly successful season. Our members are indebted to the NSW Director of Umpires, Keith Ogston and Terry Godfrey who provided significant input into a range of umpire assessments, development and promotion schemes. Peter Hampshire, Ken Ray and David Stuckey provided specialist coaching for all umpires. Peter Hampshire co-ordinated all umpire appointments. We owe a big thank you to Bill Yeomans for his invaluable assistance and good humour.

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Season 1994 has come and gone and once again it was a strong and successful year for the Umpires Association.

1994 saw the commencement of Keith Ogston as NSW State Director of Umpires. Keith's transition was smooth and successful and we can look forward to working together with Keith over the ensuing years to further promote the cause and standard of umpiring within NSW. It was good to see Keith's wife, Cheryl and the girls at games and supporting other social functions organised by the Association.

The organisation of the social calendar is not an easy task as all could appreciate, it is always difficult to suit everyone's individual tastes, however the job done was an exceptional one. Thanks to Grant and Nevill (bartender and dishwasher) for their Thursday night efforts and to David Yole who organised many a pleasant evening. To Nick and Lachlan - the trivia kings - good job well done, and to all who attended the functions, thank you for your support on these occasions.

In 1995 we plan to expand the social calendar and I, together with the Board look forward to again seeing as many faces as possible at all of these functions.

Maureen Cummings has returned as Training Supervisor in 1995 after an absence of three years. With Maureen's return we bid farewell to David Stuckey who has done an excellent job. All umpires who achieved better results and attained higher levels of umpiring can attribute this to David's efforts.

On the field it was again a very successful season for umpires from our Association. Gerald Walsh continued to excel in the AFL Seniors and Matthew Norden progressed to the VSFL finals series. 1994 saw umpires travel the country from Perth to Melbourne at representative levels; a great achievement. It was also a year of change: many established first grade umpires left the SFL and it was very pleasing to see the development and promotion of many members to first grade in the space of twelve months. To all umpires who officiated at AFL, VSFL or representative level sincere congratulations.

To conclude, I would like to thank Mark, Peter, Nick, Henry, Grant and Gerald, my fellow Board members, for their friendship and assistance during the season 1994, and I join with them in wishing all umpires and their families a successful 1995.
