President's Report

The year 2000 is upon us and Football, Australian rules style continues to evolve, with the expansion of the Sydney competition, rule changes, club amalgamations, new venues, AFL club alignments, etc etc etc – where will it end? Who knows.

However we should reflect on 1999 before progressing to 2000. To me it seems boring to write each year on how difficult the previous year has been and yes, 1999 was no different, with one huge exception, the input and support of the Westfield foundation.

Westfield, through its generosity supported umpiring in NSW as never before. The supply of video equipment, a large screen monitor for the rooms, network support, development support, the funding of an Elite Umpires Camp, the assistance in junior recruitment and development, the design and implementation of advertising material and posters and the totally professional support supplied to our group was magnificent. To Mark Ryan and Mike Yanco of the Westfield Foundation, Umpiring NSW thanks you and I personally thank you and we all look forward to your continued support.

1999 had a number of problems that re-occurred, an acute shortage of umpires, a lack of new faces invading the scene, increasing pressure on and off the field on all umpires and in house discontent amongst our own ranks have all contributed to an extremely difficult year.

In contrast to this adversity I now look upon the positive way in which the year was taken by our group, a consistently high level of excellence on the field culminating in an outstanding finals series in all grades, where no individual or club walked away discontented with the umpiring.

A hearty congratulations to each member of the association for the manner in which they went about the task at hand during 1999. The way in which rule changes and interpretations were embraced and adapted has led the way in our codes development. It has led to a higher standard of play and is now being adopted by many other levels throughout the country, but NSW has led the way.

I move now to the single most outstanding achievement – Michael Heinrichs – umpiring State of Origin followed by the AFL Senior Grand Final, an incredible achievement from a non Melbourne based umpire.

Congratulations once again on your season 99, - but how the hell can you go better in 2000??

To all my fellow board members thank you for your support and assistance and the professional manner in which you all went about the business of looking after the Associations best interests, a job well done yet again.

I trust that everyone has had a safe and enjoyable Christmas and New Year and that by now you are all raring to go and cant wait for the footy to commence.

I welcome David Yole back as coach and Peter Hampshire as fitness coach for the year, we are fortunate to have the calibre of these guys available for our use in Sydney.

I also pay a particular welcome to Craig Davis who has already made a huge impact on umpiring. Craig only knows one way and he will work tirelessly to better and improve every facet of umpiring for all of us involved in umpiring.

I wish all a successful season, I encourage all to be supportive of each other both on and off the field and I would ask everyone to be supportive of the Association, particularly in attending social outings that are organised, these few things will make all of us enjoy our footy more.

Thank You

Kevin Meade
President

Secretary's Report

There were three events during the 1999 Sydney football season, that I feel should be recorded as being the most significant moments in a tempestuous year for the Association.

The first occurred early in the season with the appointment of Mark Rendell to his 350th first grade game in the Sydney Football League/Sydney AFL. This achievement marks a monumental contribution to Australian football in this State and it is easy to understand why Mark is a life member of the Sydney Football League and our Association.

Mark's position in the Sydney football community is reflected in the respect that the players and officials of the Balmain and Campbelltown clubs gave to him on the day of the 350th game. It is also notable that Bill Barratt of the Campbelltown club took the time to produce a video of the game for Mark to keep as a memento.

Not long after, the Association lost one of its life members when Frank Nevill passed away. Frank was a long serving member of the Association, who had also served as president.

During his career, Frank achieved a first grade grand final and was selected for representative matches. He also devoted considerable effort to the development of umpiring, assisting Mark Rendell with the running of the North Shore junior association.

While Frank's passing was a sad moment for the Association, I am sure that everybody who knew him will have a memory to carry with them. For me, I remember Frank as somebody who took the time to provide guidance during my days as junior umpire on the North Shore, was a colleague when I became a senior umpire and most recently an observer.

I think it is fitting that our new honour board for grand final umpires is named after Frank and I am sure that almost everybody whose name appears on the board has fond memories of Frank.

The third significant event was the appointment of Mike Heinrichs to the 1999 AFL Grand Final. Mike was the emergency goal umpire for the 1998 grand final and also officiated in the 1999 State of Origin game.

Mike's achievement is a reflection of his attitude and commitment to umpiring. He is supportive of his colleagues and most importantly he is very good at what he does. I am sure that Saturday 25 September 1999 is a day he will never forget.

Each of these events is significant in that they involve people who have made a long-term commitment to Australian football in Sydney. At the same time, they have also freely devoted their time to helping the Association and encouraging others to achieve their goals.

Treasurers Report

The Association recorded a modest loss for the year of $114.78. Features of this result include;

- * The Associations general revenues during the year were strengthened by more aggressive pursuit of Association memberships, continued good relations with the League, and increased revenues from raffles and fundraising
- * The Association's stocks of shirts, shorts and socks will be unable to derive future revenues that the Association has become accustomed to, due to the provision of uniforms by the AFL sponsors in Season 2000. The Association will continue to market polo and chambre shirts, and other ancillary items such as whistles, which provide an income stream for the Association thereby relieving the pressure on member fees. The Board believes that the recording of stock at cost represents a fair value, as we expect to be able to continue to supply some country umpire groups with their equipment requirements.
- * The Association continued its policy to deliver better quality and more frequent members functions.
- * The Association purchased member amenities including tables for the meeting room, and a Grand Final Honour Board recognising those umpires who have achieved the ultimate honour available in Sydney.

The ongoing operation of the Association and its level of membership fees will be significantly affected by some factors that are expected to occur in Season 2000. The first of these is the provision by the AFL of certain uniform items, which will impact on the Association's ability to derive income from equipment sales. Second, is the proposed diversion of practice match fees from the Association to officiating umpires. This has been brought about by the structure of the pre-season competition and pressure from some members to do so. Both measures will lead to a marked increase in membership subscription levels if the Association is to deliver to its members the quality of services and functions that occurred in 1999. Members should of course, be aware that despite this, umpires will be considerably better off by expenditure relief of not needing to purchase uniforms, and the additional income from practice matches. The expected effects of the GST are outlined below.

No director has received or become entitled to receive, during or since the financial year, a benefit because of a contract made by the Association with a director, a firm of which the director is a member, or an entity in which a director has a substantial financial interest

The Association has not, during or since the financial year, in respect of any person who is or has been an officer or auditor of the Association;

- indemnified or made any relevant agreement for indemnifying against a liability, including costs and expenses in successfully defending legal proceedings; or
- paid or agreed to pay a premium in respect of a contract insuring against a liability for the costs or expenses to defend legal proceedings.

Goods and Services Tax

Members will no doubt be aware that a Goods and Services Tax will be introduced on 1 July 2000. The following summarises the effect that the Board expects the GST will have on the Association's operations.

- * The Association is not required to register for GST and at this stage does not propose to do so.
- * As a result, the Association will not per se charge GST on its memberships or goods and services provided however, the Association will be required to pay GST on the goods and services it purchases.
- * Savings will be obtained from the abolition of wholesale sales tax on some items, after which GST will be applied.
- * The cost of functions, being not subject to sales tax, will bear the biggest increase. This is a major item of Association expenditure.
- * The effect of the GST will, of course, need to be passed on in membership subscriptions.

On a personal note, I extend my thanks to all members for their support during what was an exciting time for me at the end of last season. I can only look forward to more umpires from NSW aspiring to and reaching the pinnacle of umpiring, and that such drive and success will unite the Association's members for the good of football in this city.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS
NEW SOUTH WALES AUSTRALIAN FOOTBALL UMPIRES ASSOCIATION LIMITED
A.C.N. 001 335 629

Scope

We have audited the financial statements of New South Wales Australian Umpires Association Limited for the year ended 31st December, 1999. The office bearers are responsible for the preparation and presentation of the accounts and the information they contain. We have conducted an independent audit of these financial statements in order to express an opinion on them to the members.

Our audit has been conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards to provide reasonable assurance as to whether the accounts are free of material misstatement. Our procedures included examination, on a test basis, of evidence supporting the amounts and other disclosures in the financial statements and the evaluation of accounting policies and significant accounting estimates. These procedures have been undertaken to form an opinion as to whether in all material respects the financial statements are presented fairly in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Associations Incorporation Act 1985, so as to present a view which is consistent with our understanding of the association's financial position, and the results of its operations.

The audit opinion expressed in the report has been formed on the above basis.

Audit Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements present fairly in accordance with the applicable Accounting Standards and the Associations Incorporation Act 1985, the financial position of New South Wales Australian Umpires Association Limited as at 31st December, 1999, and the results of its operations for the year then ended.
